

1. Indie-vidual

Does this road remind you of the one you used to take when you walked to school? Is the air starting to smell increasingly familiar? A hint of vanilla amidst the pollution? Did the crush of the leaves under your feet take you back a few years?

Nostalgia's at it again!

Exploring self-expression and realism, two important markers of anything indie, this event will bring about an atmosphere of sentimentality'.

Take the stage to portray what makes you Nostalgic!

Rules:

1. This is a Hinglish drama event.
2. Participant: 1, NPA- none
3. Duration: 2-2:30 mins
4. This event is a monologue, based on the theme 'Nostalgia' which should be evident in your script. The participants are free to pursue any creative character choice and are encouraged to explore unusual sub-themes.
5. The event will have two rounds- eliminations and finals. If selected for the finals, participants can have the same performance for both rounds or can make slight modifications in their script. Please note:- Modifications do not carry any additional points.

6. The script needs to be submitted before 9th December, 11:59 pm, in PDF format. (If the participant will modify the script for the finals, both scripts need to be submitted.)

7. Props are allowed.

8. For the elimination round:

- Participants are to submit their pre-recorded monologues by 13th December, 11:59 pm.
- These pre-recorded monologues will be screened on Zoom.

9. For the final round:

- Participants will perform their monologues live on zoom.

10. No vulgarity in action, dialogue, costume or props will be permitted. Negative marking will be given for the same.

11. NCEs are allowed to participate in the event.

